- 5) FY 2016-17 Focus area: Daniela mentioned that last year the focus area was foster youth and at-risk middle school students. Each year, the Board requests that all of the Collaborative Councils choose an area of focus.
  - a) Carol C. suggested to continue the focus on at-risk youth
  - b) Victoria S. suggested focusing on fathers and father roles. She mentioned there can be a partnership with father programs at the district level and can also tie into with the at-risk youth. There are good education programs with dads but would like to see this as a focus.
    - i) Vanessa from the CNUUSD Parent Center mentioned a few programs that involves fathers; dads all in, the watch dogs, and there is another program in process. 7 schools were introduced to these programs last year. Mel Campbell is making these changes.
      - (1) Victoria requested to invite Mel to come to a meeting and speak on what he is working on and see if we can help in those efforts.
        - i. Michelle C. suggested to focus on parent involvement and fathers can be included under that category.
        - ii. Anita S. mentioned the collaborative could donate books to the parent center for the workshops offered there for fathers.
        - iii. Anita suggested we table the focus area until the next meeting and invite Mel to come to speak on the existing father programs.
- 6) Report on Recent Events
  - a) Carol C. talked about the HOPE Awards dinner, which was in June, and mentioned it was beautiful. She liked that the channel 4 anchor man was the MC for the night
    - i) The sound was hard to hear and preferred the food at Morongo
    - ii) Linda White received the award for advocating for special needs youth and medical camp screening
    - iii) Michelle mentioned it was difficult to see the people speaking. It would be nice to have a stage if the event is held there next year.
    - iv) Daniela mentioned that the awarded advocate can be nominated by collaborative councils and encouraged them to keep an eye out for the next nominee.
